When I stop

Eleanor Law

Verse

1. When I stop I re - mem-ber I am not just what I
(2. This is) our taste of E - den; in Your pow'r we are re - do. In Your arms I sur - ren-der; ev' - ry part be-longs to newed. There's no need to be hid-den; there's no need to be sub -

You. To let go, Lord, I must rest and know that I dued. Work is good but there's more: now we're stood, just in trust You are all I will ev - er need to serve and to pur - sue. A awe. We are freed and for - gi-ven not by deeds but by Your wounds
